

During the admission process, a candidate will be given only one chance to change the course from Honours to Honours or Program to Honours or Honours to Program or Program to Program, subject to adjustment of the difference in the applicable admission fee.