Library:

The college possesses a large library having 15164 titles. It is recommended that departments should maintain a separate departmental library. However, the college is required to subscribe for National and International Journals. In addition, adequate number of reference books are also to be procured by the college. Reprographic facility to be introduced. Library is maintaining the KOHA software.

In view of the above findings inspection team opines that the college has maintained its legacy of providing quality education to its students in spite of having several constraints. As reported by the head of the institution, college has taken various measures to upkeep the surroundings and maintain the greenery of the college.
